

PC/88 BRIJESH KUMAR CHAUBEY UNITES A MAN WITH HIS FAMILY
AFTER 18 YEARS

In the month of January, 2015 while performing ‘ Sentry Duty” at the Police Training School main gate, PC/88 Brijesh Kumar Chaubey, met a person namely Shri. Ram Jeevan who was a resident of Uttar Pradesh.

While asking his whereabouts, Shri Ram Jeevan told him that, at the age of 20 yrs (approx), about 18 years ago, he had come to these Islands in search of job. And that he is not having any educational qualification, and no Govt. service and he was working as a labour for his livelihood. He also stated that he remember the names of his family members and his village namely ‘Saraiyaa Saani’ which is at Uttar Pradesh. He also disclosed that he wants to go back to his native place.

The story of Ram Jeevan touched PC/88 Brijesh Kumar Chaubey and he decided to help Ram Jeevan to return back to his native place as a Noble cause. It was not an easy task to locate a small village in such a big state like Uttar Pradesh. But, Brijesh didn’t give-up and started searching the location of the village through Google Earth. After a long search, he succeeded in contacting the Branch Manager of Allahabad Grameen Bank., which is situated adjoining to the “Saraiyaa Saani” village.

During telephonic conversation the Manager of the Allahabad Grameen Bank informed him that, one client of the bank Mr. Avasthi, Bank Cashier is one of the residents of same village and after telephonic conversation with Mr Avasthi, PC/Brijesh was convinced that he is on the right path and accordingly the matter was informed to the family members of Ram jeevan through Mr. Avasthi assuring that Ram Jeevan is alive and at present is in the A&N Islands.

On the next day Ram Jeevan’s aunt contacted Shri Brijesh over Phone and also spoken to Ram Jeevan. It was like a dream come alive, as they could not believe that Ram Jeevan was alive and talking to them.

Ram Jeevan belonged to a very poor family and backward caste and his family was not able to afford the expenses to bring back Ram Jeevan to their village. Hence, Shri Brijesh with the help of his friends, decided to arrange air tickets from Kolkata to Varanasi for Ram Jeevan. He requested Police Temple Priest, Shri G.P.Mishra who was coincidentally scheduled to proceed to his hometown at Varanasi and requested him to take Ram Jeevan with him up to Banaras Railway Station. The priest agreed and when they reached Banaras Railway Station the family members of Ram Jeevan were eagerly waiting for his historic return. Finally, by the efforts of PC/88 Brijesh Kumar Chaubey, Shri Ram Jeevan met with his family members after a gap of long 18 years.
